Cordial invitation to the Conference „Tastes of Danube – Let’s taste it“ on July 8th, 2016 and to the Danube-Breakfast on July 10th, 2016, in Ulm

Dear colleagues, dear friends from the Danube region, on July 8th, 2016, a conference with the topic “Tastes of Danube – Let’s Taste it” will take place in the “Haus der Begegnung” in Ulm. The frame of the conference is the international project “Tastes of Danube. Bread. Wine. Herbs” where civil society organizations, schools and Universities from 12 countries of the Danube region are participating. More about the project under: www.tastes-of-danube.eu

Representatives of different partner groups will meet in the framework of the 10th International Danube Festival 2016 and present their interim results of the project Tastes of Danube. The conference program will include a number of plenary lectures, which will provide scientific background as well as practical approaches to the main themes in transnational comparison. Different methodical approaches will be presented. Potential future projects in the areas of lifelong learning, cultural education, sustainable tourism, social entrepreneurship and other subjects will be discussed in working groups. Interested guests are welcome to participate.

On July 8th in the evening we organize a Social Evening in order to bring all participants together in a communicative pleasant way.

Networkers from cultural, educational, social and ecological civil society organizations and other interested guests are very welcome!

This event is organised by ILEU e.V. in cooperation with DANET e.V., Donaubüro Ulm/Neu-Ulm, Haus der Begegnung, Familienbildungsstätte Ulm, Volkshochschule Ulm, Zentrum für Allgemeine Wissenschaftliche Weiterbildung (ZAWiW) and Museum der Brotkultur.

Following the Conference, on July 10th, a Danube-Breakfast will take place on the Herdbrücke, a bridge which connects the two Danube towns Ulm and Neu-Ulm. The motto of this event is „Share your bread with Danube neighbours“. Project partners and guests from all Danube

Countries and citizens from Ulm/Neu-Ulm and surroundings, people of different ages and ethnic origins, will meet sharing together a small snack made out of bread and different spreads and speaking about daily life, interests, culture and experience.

This action should reveal that we all want to meet our neighbors living along the river Danube and that we want to live together as a variety in the unity of a peaceful and tolerant Europe.

This event is organized by ILEU e.V. and the Ulm Danube-Networkers in cooperation with the Donaubüro Ulm/Neu-Ulm in the frame of the 10. International Danube Festival Ulm/Neu-Ulm, with support of students of the 5th semester at the University of Applied Sciences Neu-Ulm in the frame of their communication project.
