Binding application for the qualification training in Sofia on 9th/10th October 2017
To send to info@ileu.net

A qualification training “Bread as a social event” will take place in Sofia from 8th (Arrival) to 11th October (Departure) which will be conducted by Zdrava Vodenicharova and Sandra Topalska from the Breadhouse Network. The aim is to test and spread the method of bread as a social event (see attachment). Working language will be English. There are 15 places and if registrations exceed places, the places will be allocated according to geographical aspects and with regards to the proposed regional activities

The following costs for participation will be taken by the project coordinator: travel expenses (cheapest travel opportunities), accommodation, meals, and seminar costs.

Requirements for free-of-charge participation in this qualification seminar are the willingness to test this method several times (min 3 x) with different target groups in one’s own country, to exchange experiences with the other participants and to impart the method and the reflected experiences to potential multipliers on a 1-day multipliers event in one’s own region in spring 2018.
